

The additional supplement to an act entitled, an act, for the establishment and support of public free schools in the first election district of Baltimore county, was read a second time.

On motion the bill to alter and amend the constitution and form of government, and to repeal the 60th article thereof, was ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to correct an error in an act passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty six, for the benefit of Hesther Whitaker, and others, the heirs and representatives of Alexander Whitaker deceased, was read a third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion by Mr. Whiteley the bill to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relate to the time and manner of electing the senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, so that each County and the City of Baltimore may have a Senator to be elected immediately by the people. The further additional supplement to the act, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the resolution respecting the claims of the surviving Officers and Soldiers of the Revolution, the same being the orders of the day were postponed until to-morrow.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten 10 o'clock.

Tuesday, 29th January, 1828.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. Messrs. Marriott, Prest. Harrison, Heath, Kennedy and Nelson appeared in the senate.

The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The president laid before the senate a communication and report from the trustees of the University of Maryland, which was read and referred to Messrs. Herbert, Heath and Nelson.

The President laid before the Senate a communication from Edward Williams of the city of Annapolis, which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

The supplement to the act, for the opening of Ensor street in the City of Baltimore, was read a third time, amended by inserting after the word "days," in the 5th line of the 4th section, the word "notice," passed and returned to the house of delegates.